

JEFFERSON ROME SEMESTER at UARC
Course List (Architecture, Interior Design, Graphic Design, Fashion Studies, Business, and Hallmarks)
Please Note the Following:

The following courses are available to students participating in the Jefferson Rome Semester. Some courses may be required. It should not be assumed that ALL of these courses will be available during your semester abroad, as courses are sometimes cancelled due to low interest/low enrollment. Please consult with your academic advisor before you select courses from the list below.

Additional courses may be available. Speak with your Study Away Advisor during your official appointment*

In those cases where courses have two equivalencies listed, you must decide which equivalency best suits your academic needs, and clearly indicate which equivalency you want on your course authorization form.

Interior Design students are permitted to take 15 to 18 credits; ARCH, GD & Fashion students will be enrolled in 12 to 18 credits.

Open to students in other majors depending on course plan.
