

JEFFERSON PARIS SEMESTER at ULIP
Course List (Law and Society, Communication, Business, and Hallmarks)

Please Note the Following:

The following courses are available to students participating in the Jefferson Paris Semester. Some courses may be required. It should not be assumed that ALL of these courses will be available during your semester abroad, as courses are sometimes changed. Please consult with your academic advisor before you select courses from the list below.

Additional courses may be available with approval. Speak with your Study Away Advisor during your official appointment*

In those cases where courses have two equivalencies listed, you must decide which equivalency best suits your academic needs, and clearly indicate which equivalency you want on your course authorization form.

Students can take 12 credits per term
